WELCOME

The Adirondack Winter Invitational, presented by Golden Arrow Lakeside Resort, returns to the Olympic Center's 1980 Herb Brooks Arena over Thanksgiving Weekend for its fourth year, with the addition of a two-game series between the St. Lawrence University and Merrimack College women's hockey teams.

The women's teams face off at noon on both Friday, November 27 and Saturday, November 28, opening each day ahead of the men's tournament, which features host Clarkson, St. Lawrence and first-time participants Merrimack and Rochester Institute of Technology playing non-conference games.

The Merrimack men won the Hockey East Tournament title last year for an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament where they lost 3-0 to University of North Dakota in the first round. The Merrimack women are led by first-year head coach Courtney Kennedy, an Olympic teammate of Saranac Lake's Andrea Kilbourne-Hill on the 2002 USA Hockey team that won a silver medal in the Salt Lake City Games.

Clarkson and St. Lawrence are members of the ECAC Hockey conference, which hosts its men's and women's championship tournaments in Lake Placid annually. RIT, a four-time Atlantic Hockey America champion, advanced to the NCAA Tournament Frozen Four in 2010.

PUCK DROP

Setting The Table
The Merrimack women's hockey team won their only game the previous weekend when they beat Boston College 3-2 in overtime. This weekend Merrimack heads to Lake Placid to face St.Lawrence for a two game set as a part of the Adirondack Winter Invitational.

Mach Five
Freshman goaltender Machala Musty made 42 saves in Merrimack's win, her second straight game making 40+ saves and her third of the season. Musty's six wins are the second most in conference and most for freshman and sixth in both save percentage (min. 500 min) and total saves (379).

Maddie Magic
Junior forward Madison Vittands is one of 15 Hockey East players to be at a point a game pace entering the weekend with six goals and eight assists for 14 points, and has doubled her career best of seven points in the season from last year.

Take a Letter, Maria
Maria Lindberg scored her team leading seventh goal of the season against Northeastern. Maria holds the team lead in goals and sits in the top 10 in goals so far in the conference.

Tournament Time
This is Merrimack's first in-season tournament appearance under Courtney Kennedy and their first since 2024 when they reached the SMASHVille Invitational final after beating #13 Penn State 3-1 before falling in the final to Clarkson 4-0.

Matchup History
To take home the trophy, The Warriors will have to do something they've never done and beat St. Lawrence. Merrimack is 0-3-1 all time against the Saints with their last game coming in 2024, a 3-0 loss, Only four players remain from the team on that season, Maria Lindberg, Emma Pfeffer and Solveig Gisler, Maggie Kime (DNP) and Jordan Nishi (DNP).

PUCK DROP

Setting the Table
The Merrimack men's hockey team split their weekend series with Boston University, taking a 6-3 win at home before falling 5-1 on the road. This weekend the Warriors enter the Adirondack Winter Invitational against St. Lawrence on Friday and Clarkson on Saturday.

Austin's Achievement
If senior defender Austin Oravetz plays in both games this weekend, he will reach 100 NCAA games. Oravetz played for two seasons at Michigan State, winning two Big 10 championships before joining Merrimack, and winning his third conference championship last season. In 98 career games, Austin has 17 points (one goal, 16 assists).

Goals, Goals, Goals
Merrimack sits in second place in the Hockey East goalscoring charts with 51 entering the weekend. The Warriors are also one of 11 teams to have more than 50 goals at this point. 14 Warriors have at least one goal this season and three players (Pierre, Daneault & Cranston) have five or more so far this season.

Fifteen
Entering the weekend, Nick Pierre (goals leader), Trevor Hoskin (assists leader) & Ty Daneault sit tied for the points lead with 15 each.

Recent History
Merrimack has never beaten St. Lawrence away from Lawler Arena going 0-13-1, but they did win the last meeting between the two, a 5-2 win in October 2023, in a weekend where they also hosted fellow opponent Clarkson.

This is Merrimack's first in-season tournament since they took part in the Friendship Four in November 2024 where they finished fourth, but the team has played in two other in-season tournaments under head coach Scott Borek reaching the finals of the Ledyard Cup against Providence in Nov. 2022 and winning the Turkey Leg Classic in Nov. 2023 with wins over Army and Bentley, snapping a 19 year drought when they last won the Coffee Pot in 2004.

MEN'S HOCKEY TRAVELS TO LAKE PLACID FOR 2026 ADIRONDACK WINTER INVITATIONAL

The RIT Men's Hockey Team will take on Clarkson, Friday, and St. Lawrence, Saturday, at the Fourth-Annual Adirondack Winter Invitational at historic 1980 Herb Brooks Arena in Lake Placid, N.Y.

The Tigers return to the ice following a nearly two week layoff, most recently falling, 5-4, in overtime to visiting Canisius (Nov. 14) in Atlantic Hockey America (AHA) play at the Gene Polisseni Center in their lone home game of November.

Clarkson saw a three-game winning-streak come to a close last Saturday (Nov. 21) following a 6-3 setback at Colgate after defeating host Cornell, 4-2, the previous night.

St. Lawrence played the same schedule on opposite nights, defeating host Colgate, 4-3, last Friday before coming up short, 5-2, at Cornell on Saturday.

TIGER REWIND
RIT has been sitting on a 5-4 overtime loss to visiting Canisius over the last two weeks. The Golden Griffins built a 3-1 lead midway through the second before the Tigers scored three-straight to take a 4-3 lead early in the third. Canisius re-tied the game with under three minutes remaining in regulation and notched the game-winner 1:13 into overtime to close the night.

Senior forward Christian Catalano and sophomore forward Caleb Elfering each notched a goal and an assist, while first-year forward Julian Demiglio added his second goal in a Tiger uniform. Sophomore forward Zach Wigle also scored his first goal of the season on a team-high six shots on goal and sophomore forward Nick Peluso was credited with two assists for the second time in three games.

ON A HEATER
Senior forward Matthew Wilde notched an assist against Canisius for a point in his third-straight game. He was voted the AHA Forward of the Week (Nov. 10) after a five-goal outburst in two games at Bentley.

- Wilde entered the weekend in a four-way for first place in the AHA with six goals in 10 games this season, knotted with Holy Cross' Owen Kim (15 games) and Mattew Kursonis (12) and Sacred Heart's Diego Buttazzoni (14).
- Wilde moved into 28th on RIT's D1-era scoring list with 74 points (43g-31a) in 77 games and three seasons with the Tigers. He is the only player inside the top-30 to appear in fewer than 100 games at RIT.
- Wilde has 78 career points (44g-34) after also scoring four points (1g-3a) playing for UMass during the 2025-26 season.
